

Westphalian Auction time

Bidding has started

Münster: It is getting exciting at the Westfälisches Pferdestammbuch. As of today, bids can be placed for the collections of riding horses and foals. The BidUp for the riding horses starts on Sunday, April 11, at 2 pm. The foals will be auctioned off on Monday evening, April 12, starting at 7.30 pm.

The 61st Westphalian Elite Auction will take place online. As of today, it is possible to place bids on the auction candidates. 54 promising dressage and show jumping horses are up for sale in this collection. The high quality lot includes young up-and-coming hopefuls as well as already highly placed competition horses. At onlineauction.westfalenpferde.de the collection is available for viewing with complete pedigree information, photos and videos. Current training videos of the dressage and show jumping horses are also available. Registered users also have access to the x-rays and veterinary examination protocols. The BidUp of the dressage horses will start on Sunday, April 11, at 2 pm. The show jumpers will be auctioned off afterwards.

One day later, the 1st "Westfalen on Tour" online foal auction will end in an exciting BidUp starting at 7.30 pm. Bids can be placed as of today. 16 of the youngest Westphalians have been selected for this special auction on a tour through the breeding area. Also, the complete information with photos and videos can be found at onlineauction.westfalenpferde.de.

The attached photos can be used free of charge in connection with the PR (credits: Reckimedia).

BU 1: Opens the 61st Westphalian Elite Auction: Zaunkönig by Zack/De Niro

BU 2: Promising young talent: The licensed stallion Crystallized by Cristallo I/Lancer II

You can find a video to embed in your website here: <https://youtu.be/9ES9irky2Yo>