The auction team of the Westfälisches Pferdestammbuch has selected 50 young prospects for the 17th Summer Auction. The lot consists of 38 dressage offers and 12 youngsters for the show jumping course. Among the dressage horses, there are three riding ponies for sale that will make children's hearts beat faster. The collection offers everything from high-quality young horses to be trained by the riders themselves to young stars who are already successful in competitions. Competition riders will find what they are looking for as well as ambitious leisure riders and families looking for the right four-legged partner.

The auction collection is opened by a highly interesting young horse. From the best Westphalian breeder's house, Just Magic enters the virtual auction stage in Münster-Handorf. The son of Johnson/Belissimo M (breeder: Günter Schulze Düding, Steinfurt) leaves no desires open in terms of movement and rideability. The lot of show jumpers is opened by the head number 41, the Cicero Z van Paemel/Mr Blue son Cicero Blue (breeder: E.B. Renken, Netherlands). Already successful in competitions, the gelding is a promising young horse with all possibilities.

The auction candidates will move into their stables at the Westphalian Horse Centre in Münster-Handorf on May 31. After arranging a personal appointment with the sales team of the Westfälisches Pferdestammbuch, viewing and trying out of the horses is possible at any time. The lot can be viewed with photos, videos and all relevant pedigree information at onlineauction.westfalenpferde.de. Registered users can also download x-ray pictures and a veterinary report. Current training impressions will be made available as additional videos in the 23rd calendar week. Bids can be submitted from June 10 onwards. The online BidUps for dressage horses will start on June 13 at 2 pm. The jumping horses will then enter the final BidUp phase at 4.30 pm.
