

Next foal auction in Westphalia

Bidding on dressage and jumping foals started again

Münster: As of today, bidding is possible again. 33 young Westphalians are for sale in the online auction. The BidUp starts on Monday, June 28, at 7.30 pm.

After a one-week break from the auction, the next Westphalian offspring are up for sale. The auction team of the Westphalian Stud Book has selected 33 young talents. The lot consists of 21 colts and 12 fillies, 21 of which are predispositioned for dressage and 12 for jumping. The sires of these future hopes range from Westphalian young stallions to already internationally successful sires. A closer look at the photos and videos of these foals is definitely worthwhile!

As usual, all important information on the pedigree and dam line of the foals can be viewed at onlineauction.westfalenpferde.de. You can also find informative photos and videos of the auction candidates. Registered users also have access to a veterinary report on the foals. Bids for the stars of tomorrow can be placed until 7.30 p.m. on Monday evening. Then the exciting BidUp will start.

The attached photo may be used free of charge in connection with this press release. (Photo credit: Reckimedia)

BU: Head number 1 Fantastico by Franz Joseph Junior

BU 2: Opening the line-up of jumping foals: Head number 2 Tarzan by Tangelo vd Zuuthoeve