

Closely connected - for horse breeding from Westphalia

Since 1977, horses have been trained and marketed very successfully at the Westphalian Horse Center, which is part of the Westphalian Studbook e.V.

The Westphalian horse is known and very popular all over the world. As a service for our breeders, we pay special attention to the breaking in and training of young horses.

To strengthen our team at the Westphalian Horse Center, we are looking for the following as soon as possible:

A professional groom in fulltime (m/f/d)

Your tasks:

- To take care of the auction and training horses
- prepare the horses for our Riders
- Lunging and walking horses
- Participation at the events of the Westphalian Horse Center
- Daily yard duties

Our requirements:

- Completed apprenticeship as a professional groom or experience in the field of horse care
- Motivation, reliability, ability to work in a team and a positive attitude
- Experience in the handling of young horses
- Customer-oriented appearance

We offer:

- Working in a young and motivated team
- Responsible and varied work due to participation in events
- the opportunity for personal development and participation
- Many contacts in the equestrian and breeder industry

You enjoy the daily work with horses and you have experience in this area. If you are motivated, reliable and have a positive attitude towards work, we look forward to receiving your application with CV and references by post or email:
